

A Gift for the Future

CARNEGIE INSTITUTION OF WASHINGTON

One of the most effective ways of supporting the work of the Carnegie Institution of Washington is to include the institution in your estate plans. By making a bequest, you can support the institution well into the future.

A bequest is both a tangible demonstration of your dedication to the Carnegie Institution and a way to generate significant tax savings for your estate. Some bequests to Carnegie have been directed to fellowships, chairs, and departmental research projects. Some have been additions to the endowment, other bequests have been unrestricted.

The following sample language can be used in making a bequest to the Carnegie Institution:

“I give and bequeath the sum of $_____ (or % of my residuary estate) to the Carnegie Institution of Washington, 1530 P Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20005-1910.”
